Connect Your Life's Energy and Your Life's Contribution

In The Energy of Money book study group you gain knowledge in how to work with all the energies of your life: physical vitality, relationships, money, time, creativity, and enjoyment. When you develop a powerful relationship with one form of energy, you become powerful with all forms of energy.

The Energy of Money book study is designed to guide participants through a dynamic exploration of personal and financial fulfillment. Based on the text, The Energy of Money by Maria Nemeth, the sessions open the mind and soul to how the energy of money can empower each and every one of us in reaching the goals and dreams we hope to realize in our lives.

"I am filled with gratitude for this course ..."
Susan Crawford King

The Energy of Money book study group is a seven week eighteen hour study with Sally Larson Babcock, M.Ed., LCPC, counselor, mentor, Mastery Facilitator, leader, teacher, and ACES life coach. The book study will introduce you to tools that will allow you to take "authentic actions" that bring your goals and dreams into physical reality.

Take advantage of this opportunity to explore your individual challenges in the financial realm. Join other participants and the coach on the path to harnessing your life's energies.
